AS375.402

4th Year Arabic

SYLLABUS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

AS.375.402 is designed for students who have taken AS.375.401 4th year Arabic with a C+ or above (or equivalent) and wish to learn the language at an academic level by obtaining knowledge of the linguistic aspects of the language as well as skills needed to communicate in Arabic.

The goal of this course is to help students reach a good level of proficiency by expanding their vocabulary repertoire and preparing them for handling paragraph-level activities in reading, writing and speaking. The focus of this course is on Classical Arabic. Through analyzing different texts of Classical Arabic, students will gain the knowledge needed to understand how the language evolved into what it is today. Authentic text of literary themes will be studied throughout the course.

The specific objectives of the course are to:

1. Further development of the students’ listening, reading, writing and speaking skills.
2. Expanding and increasing vocabulary acquisition
3. Refining and expanding students’ knowledge of complex grammar structures
4. Expanding students’ knowledge and background on the Arabic language and Islamic culture.
5. Discussing and understanding current events.

In a language course like this, it is imperative that you attend every class, since new material is presented every day. Much of the learning, though, must be done outside of class. This means, among other things, that you should read each lesson assigned and answer the questions on the worksheet BEFORE that lesson is discussed in class. That is the only way you can gain maximum benefit from each class and be assured of not falling behind. We would like to remind you that acquiring a language is NOT something that can be achieved through overnight cramming; rather, it can only be accomplished through the accumulation of daily effort.

Exams:
A total of two written exams are given during each term. Two sets of exams are given in the fall term as shown in the schedule. (A new schedule will be provided at the beginning of the spring term.) The written exams are in class. The two written exams in each term cover materials introduced in class up to the day the exam is given. Detailed information will be announced in class.

Class Discussions:
Every student is required to participate and engage in the class discussions. Discussions are based on the reading assigned to students and current events. Students must come prepared to class and must read ALL the material assigned. The discussion can be on the form of questions, a controversial issue or any topic the student feels the need to address.

Presentations:
There will be two presentations throughout the semester. Presentation topics will be assigned during the semester.

Assignments:
There are two kinds of assignments:
1. Assignments that are assigned from the book. These assignments are to be turned in either hand written or typed.
2. Assignments assigned from the instructor based on your needs. Sometimes the instructor will assign homework that it not stated in the course schedule depending on specific language skills that need to be addressed.

Late submissions are NOT accepted. The highest possible score for each assignment is 10 points, and the average of all assignments is counted toward your final score.

POLICY (strictly observed)
1. Our Center strictly observes the procedures regarding violations of academic integrity published on the JHU website. The following is an excerpt from the JHU website: http://www.graduateboard.jhu.edu/integrity.htm

Academic Integrity: In all aspects of their work, students assume an obligation to conduct themselves in a manner appropriate to the Johns Hopkins University’s mission as an institution of higher education. A student must refrain from acts that he or she knows, or under the circumstances has reason to know, may impair the academic integrity of the University. Violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to: cheating, plagiarism; submitting as one’s own the same or substantially similar work of another; knowingly furnishing false information to any agent of the University for inclusion in the academic records; dishonesty in discharging teaching assistant duties; falsification; forgery.

Student Conduct: The University expects all students to respect the rights of others, and to refrain from behavior that impairs the University’s mission of teaching, research/scholarship, and outreach to the local, national, and international community. Violations of appropriate student conduct may include, but are not limited to: harassment behavior (physical or verbal); intimidation or verbal abuse; actions that are a danger to one’s own personal safety or that may harm others, and actions that destroy, impair, or wrongfully appropriate property.
Students are expected to know and abide by University policies governing student conduct and academic integrity. Those who impair the University’s mission are subject to expulsion. Refer to your divisional academic policies and procedures for specific information.

2. This course is not designed for students who identify Arabic as their first language. The Center for Language Education reserves the right to place students in the language course appropriate to their level of language skill.

3. No incomplete grade is given.

4. Simultaneous registration is strictly prohibited.

5. Make up quizzes and exams will not be given.

   If there are extenuating circumstances, you need to contact the instructor PRIOR to class and arrange a day and time to make up the quiz/exam. Requests to the instructor after class will not receive any consideration. (Contact the instructor directly via e-mail, phone, etc., regarding a possible delay of your arrival. Do not leave a message with the administrator in the Center for Language Education.)

6. Written assignments must be submitted upon your arrival to the classroom. Late submission after 4:00 p.m (for written) and midnight (online) of the due date is not accepted regardless of reasons.

7. Attendance is one of the MOST IMPORTANT aspects of the course and not only contributes to your knowledge of the language but also is essential to your development of SKILLS. In order for you to form good attendance habits, we employ the following policy: Any student missing more than 2 days (unexcused absences) will receive a 0.5-point reduction from their final score for each unexcused absence (beyond 2). For example, if you miss 5 days in a term, although the first two are exempted, 0.5 point is lost for each of the third day, fourth day, and fifth day, giving a total of 1.5 points subtracted from the final score you receive in the course. In addition, if you miss part of class time, you are considered as tardy. Two tardies will be counted as 1 absence. If your absence is due to unavoidable circumstances, let your instructor know immediately before class starts and wait for his/her instructions.

8. In order to move on to the next term, you are required to receive at least a grade of C+. If you receive a grade of C or below and wish to continue to the next term/level, you need to study during the break and take a placement test a day before the new term starts. If you receive a grade higher than C+, then you can take the subsequent course.

9. The Center for Language Education does not allow individuals to "sit in" on classes or register as audit. All students must register with a grade option.

10. Any student with a disability who may need accommodations in this class must obtain an accommodation letter from Student Disability Services, 385 Garland, (410) 516-4720, studentdisabilityservices@jhu.edu

11. The Center for Language Education follows Hopkins regulations and policies regarding religious holidays detailed in the student handbook. Religious holidays are valid reasons to be excused from class. Students who must miss a class or examination because of a religious holiday must inform the instructor as early in the semester as possible in order to be excused from class and to make arrangements to make up any work that is missed. Students who expect to miss several classes because of religious holidays are encouraged to meet with their academic advisers to consider alternative courses prior to registration.
REQUEST AND RECOMMENDATION
1. We request that during the class periods, no food is consumed.
2. We request that you contact us at your earliest convenience if you feel that you are falling behind or that you cannot avoid missing classes. Since we meet frequently, we need to keep you informed of various events and issues.
3. We recommend that students with 18 credits besides the language not to take the language course. Language courses require regular practice every day. Therefore, it cannot be a light extra course, and you need a strong commitment to a language course.
4. We recommend that you take a language course based on a letter grade and NOT a pass/fail grade. In particular, a C+ or better is required to move to higher levels, which may not be evident in a pass/fail grade (e.g., in cases where a “pass” equates to a C, making it difficult to assess readiness for progression).
