

AS380.101-102

1st Year Korean Syllabus

COURSE DESCRIPTION

AS380.101-102 (1st Year Korean) is designed for those who have no background in Korean language and wish to learn Korean at an academic level, obtaining knowledge of the linguistic aspects of the language as well as skills needed to communicate in Korean.

This course will begin by introducing the writing and sound system of the Korean language. The remainder of the course will focus on four skills (speaking, listening, writing, and reading) as well as Korean culture. It is expected that, by the end of the spring term, students will have basic speaking and listening comprehension skills, a solid grasp of basic grammar, reading and writing skills.

The specific objectives of the course are to:

- Speaking & Listening: understand and perform simple daily conversations to communicate on daily topics such as self-introduction, daily routines, description of surrounding things, ordering food, shopping, traveling, asking directions, etc.
- Reading: demonstrate basic reading skills such as recognizing words or understanding information from simple connected texts dealing with personal and social events
- Writing: compose simple sentences and write a short diary or letters
- Culture: understand basics of Korean culture including cultural etiquettes and the differences and similarities between Korean and American culture

In a language course like this, it is imperative that you attend every class, since new material is presented every day. Much of the learning, though, must be done outside of class. This means, among other things, that you are expected to study class materials before coming to the class. That is the only way you can gain maximum benefit from each class and be assured of not falling behind. We would like to remind you that acquiring a language is NOT something that can be achieved through overnight cramming; rather, it can only be accomplished through the accumulation of daily effort.

Participation:

Participation includes active learning. The class involves dialog practices, conversations, group discussions, online discussions, etc. Students are expected to participate in in-class and online activities in positive and meaningful ways.

Quiz:

Quizzes consisting of vocabulary, dictation, and grammar will be given during the first 10 minutes of the class on Tuesday and Thursday. No make-up quizzes will be given for missing quizzes (See Policy #5 and #6 for details).

Assignment:

The selected following assignments will be given. You have to be IN CLASS on the day of each homework submission. Late assignment after 3:00 p.m. of the due date will be NOT accepted. You must check the deadline for each assignment.

a. Work book assignment

You are required to complete ALL the exercises in each chapter. Points will be deducted for any unfinished parts (each unfinished section -1 pt). One of sections will be randomly selected and checked for grammar & spelling (grammar mistake -0.2 and spelling mistake -0.1).

b. Interview I & II : You are required to interview two native speakers of Korean. More detail description will be given. (pt: all or none)

c. Online activities for typing practice (pt: all or none)

Written Exam:

Mid-term and Final written exam will be an achievement test including/covering materials introduced in class up to the day the exam is given. Final exam will include everything that is covered in class.

Oral exam:

Mid-term and final oral exam is a paired speaking test, in which students are expected to demonstrate their ability to communicate in Korean.

1. Format: conversation with a partner
2. Topic: any related topics to the chapters studied in class.
(using words, expressions & grammar learned from the class)
3. Length: 2 minutes
4. Evaluation of the oral presentations will be based upon the following components: content, pronunciation(pace, flow, intonation), vocabulary, grammar and participation.

POLICY (strictly observed)

1. Our Center strictly observes the procedures regarding violations of academic integrity published on the JHU website. The following is an excerpt from the JHU website:
<http://www.graduateboard.jhu.edu/integrity.htm>

Academic Integrity: In all aspects of their work, students assume an obligation to conduct themselves in a manner appropriate to the Johns Hopkins University's mission as an institution of higher education. A student must refrain from acts that he or she knows, or under the circumstances has reason to know, may impair the academic integrity of the University. Violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to: cheating, plagiarism; submitting as one's own the same or substantially similar work of another; knowingly furnishing false information to any agent of the University for inclusion in the academic records; dishonesty in discharging teaching assistant duties; falsification; forgery.

Student Conduct: The University expects all students to respect the rights of others, and to refrain from behavior that impairs the University's mission of teaching, research/scholarship, and outreach to the local, national, and international community. Violations of appropriate student conduct may include, but are not limited to: harassment behavior (physical or verbal); intimidation or verbal abuse; actions that are a danger to one's own personal safety or that may harm others, and actions that destroy, impair, or wrongfully appropriate property. Students are expected to know and abide by University policies governing student conduct and academic integrity. Those who impair the University's mission are subject to expulsion. Refer to your divisional academic policies and procedures for specific information.

2. This course is not designed for students who identify Korean as their first language. The Center for Language Education reserves the right to place students in the language course appropriate to their level of language skill.
3. No incomplete grade is given.
4. If another course is overlapping with AS380.101-102, you must choose one course over the other. Simultaneous registration is strictly prohibited.
5. Make up quizzes and exams will not be given. If there are extenuating circumstances, you need to contact the instructor PRIOR to class and arrange a day and time to make up the quiz/exam. Requests to the instructor after class will not receive any consideration. (Contact the instructor directly via e-mail regarding a possible delay of your arrival. Do not leave a message with the administrator in the Center for Language Education.)
6. Anyone leaving class immediately after taking a quiz will receive a score of zero on that quiz unless s/he has presented a justifiable reason PRIOR to that class. Lecture classes on Fridays start exactly at the hour with a quiz. If you are late by more than ten minutes, you cannot take the quiz for that day, unless a legitimate reason is presented PRIOR to class.
7. Written assignments must be submitted upon your arrival to the classroom. Late submission after 3:00 p.m. of the due date is not accepted regardless of reasons.
8. Attendance is one of the MOST IMPORTANT aspects of the course and not only contributes to your knowledge of the language but also is essential to your development of SKILLS. In order for you to form good attendance habits, we employ the following policy:

Any student missing more than 2 days (unexcused absences) will receive a 0.5-point reduction from their final score for each unexcused absence (beyond 2). For example, if you miss 5 days in a term, although the first two are exempted, 0.5 point is lost for each of the third day, fourth day, and fifth day, giving a total of 1.5 points subtracted from the final score you receive in the course. In addition, if you miss part of class time, you are considered as tardy. Two tardies will be counted as 1 absence. If your absence is due to unavoidable circumstances, let your instructor know immediately before class starts and wait for his/her instructions.

9. In order to move on to the next term, you are required to receive at least a grade of C+. If you receive a grade of C or below and wish to continue to the next term/level, you need to study during the break and take a placement test a day before the new term starts. If you receive a grade higher than C+, then you can take the subsequent course.
10. The Center for Language Education does not allow individuals to "sit in" on classes or register as audit. All students must register with a grade option.
11. The Center for Language Education follows Hopkins regulations and policies regarding religious holidays detailed in the student handbook. Religious holidays are valid reasons to be excused from class. Students who must miss a class or examination because of a religious holiday must inform the instructor as early in the semester as possible in order to be excused from class and to make arrangements to make up any work that is missed. Students who expect to miss several classes because of religious holidays are encouraged to meet with their academic advisers to consider alternative courses prior to registration.
http://education.jhu.edu/catalog/admission_registration_finance/registration/religious_holidays.html
12. Any student with a disability who may need accommodations in this class must obtain an accommodation letter from Student Disability Services, 385 Garland, (410) 516-4720, studentdisabilityservices@jhu.edu

REQUEST AND RECOMMENDATION

1. We request that during 50 minute-class period, no food is consumed.
2. We request that you contact us at your earliest convenience if you feel that you are falling behind or that you cannot avoid missing classes. Since we meet frequently, we need to keep you informed of various events and issues.
3. We recommend that students with 18 credits besides the language not to take the language course. Language courses require regular practice every day. Therefore, it cannot be a light extra course, and you need a strong commitment to a language course.
4. We recommend that you take a language course based on a letter grade and NOT a pass/fail grade. In particular, a C+ or better is required to move to higher levels, which may not be evident in a pass/fail grade (e.g., in cases where a "pass" equates to a C, making it difficult to assess readiness for progression).
