DEPARTMENT OF COGNITIVE SCIENCE
The Johns Hopkins University – Graduate Program Requirements Record
Master of Arts (Course Track)

Student's Full Name:_____ (as it appears on transcript)

Primary Area of Focus:_____

Primary Mentor:_____ Secondary Mentor (if applicable):_____

Expected to graduate: ☐ May ☐ August ☐ December Year: 20____

Course Track MA students must complete 12 courses with a grade of B- or better, pass Responsible Conduct of Research, and produce a portfolio of accomplishments for an oral examination at the completion of the program.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS	Term	Course Title	Course No.	Grade
☐ Courses seven courses, 600-800 Up to three courses may be substituted by 300/400-level courses with a mentor's written permission. The academic program coordinator must also be notified by the mentor of any such substitution.
☐ Lab or research seminars two courses, 800-level
☐ Directed reading or research courses three total courses, including one during intersession Course Numbers: - AS.050.690 Directed Readings in Cognitive Science - AS.050.839 Research in Cognitive Science
☐ AS.360.625 Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR) A 10-hr discussion-based course on research integrity principles. Graded P/F. Offered every free in every fall, intersession, spring and summer term. Registration must be done in-person.		RCR	AS.360.625

Students register for the research course or readings course typically in the intersession and summer. Satisfactory fulfillment of the requirements of these courses (as determined by the research mentor) will correspond to a total of 9 credits. Although not specified in the graduate transcript, the credits will typically be distributed as follows: intersession: 2 credits and summer: 7 credits.

CAPSTONE: Portfolio & Oral Examination date completed: _____

Portfolio will include course assignments, seminar papers, etc. overseen by the faculty mentor, a reading list, and a set of discussion questions. Student will present what has been learned while in the program at an oral presentation.

Committee Member 1: _____ Committee Member 2: _____

Academic Notations: To include any waivers, exceptions, extensions, etc. supported by a mentor's written permission (i.e. e-mail or letter).