THE JEWISH STUDIES PROGRAM IS OFFERING TWO AWARDS TO SUPPORT BOTH UNDERGRADUATE AND GRADUATE RESEARCH AND LANGUAGE STUDY.

The Stulman Jewish Studies Award

Eligibility:
JHU Undergraduate and Graduate Students

Terms:
A Maximum of $2,500 granted on a competitive basis to students proposing a worthy plan of language study or research related to Jewish Studies that requires material support.

Application:
Interested students should submit a 2-5 page research proposal, one letter of recommendation, and a detailed budget. Applications must be received by February 1, 2015

PLEASE SEND APPLICATION MATERIALS TO:
Mary J. Otterbein
Mergenthaler 338
410-516-7515
motterb@jhu.edu

Kenneth B. Moss, Director
The Leonard and Helen R. Stulman
Jewish Studies Program
Mergenthaler 338
3400 N. Charles Street