Just a reminder, when PIs are looking for students to work in their labs or when we receive job opportunities for recent graduates, this information is put on the website under “For Current Students” – “Student Opportunities”.

One more week of classes --- you can do it!!! Brady is around for “stress relief” if you need it. Come by to visit.

Here are some things to think about while studying for your exams this week and during finals.

Stressbusters on campus

Helpful tips for exam weeks:
- sleep regularly
- eat & drink regularly
- get frequent exercise (even just walking)
- spend time outside during daylight hours
- learn and practice a relaxation technique that suits you
- rest when you rest, study when you study (switch off internet, etc.)
- socialize
STUDYING SPACES ON CAMPUS

The Neuroscience and Behavioral Biology Conference Room will be open and stocked during before and during exam week for your studying pleasure.

The availability of the Conference Room for the week can be found on the website. We will also be posting a sign on the door when the room is in use. You can also review the Dunning Conference Room user’s policy on the website.

In order to use the Conference Room late at night or on weekends, you will need a Brain Sticker on your jCard. This will alert security & maintenance on evenings and weekends that you have been given permission to be in the Conference Room, Dunning 414. Find the Security Guard around Dunning – they park right outside – show them your Jcard with your sticker and they will let you in.

You can come into the Neuro/BB office to get your sticker.

Note: Please be sure to leave the conference room in better shape than you found it.
| COMMENT/SUGGESTION BOX | Do you have any comments or suggestions that might make the program better? Would you like to see different snacks in the Conference Room? Visit the comment box link and make your thoughts known anonymously. |
