

SCHEDULE: THE VALUE OF HUMANITY

Johns Hopkins University, April 3 2016

PLEASE NOTE: If you do not have a Johns Hopkins ID card with magnetic strip, you may not be able to access Gilman Hall at all points. Please enter by one of the three doors facing the Upper Quad (Keyser Quad); arrangements will be made to have these open. If you have any problem entering the building, please call 347-961-9428.

Gilman Hall, 288

Session I

9.00-9.10 am Nandi Theunissen, Opening Remarks

9.10-10.25 am Richard Bett, “Do The Ancients See Value in Humanity?”

Coffee Break

Session II

10.45-12.00 pm Yitzhak Melamed, “Spinoza on the Value of Humanity”

12.00-1.00 pm Lunch

Session III

1.00-2.15 pm Don Garrett, “Perceiving Value in Hume's Human Animals.”

2.20-3.35 pm Hilary Bok, “Kant on the Value of Humanity”

Coffee Break

Session IV

3.55-5.10 pm Andreja Novokavic, “Human Beings as Means and Ends in Hegel's Philosophy of History”

5.15-6.30 pm Michelle Kosch, “Fichte on the Value of Rational Agency.”

6.30-7.15 pm Reception

7.30 pm Dinner, Gertrude's, Baltimore Museum of Art