Program in Latin American Studies
Fall 2015 Events

October

Thursday, 15

Seminar:
Kent Eaton (Political Science, University of California-Santa Cruz & Woodrow Wilson Center for Scholars)
"Policy Regimes in Conflict: Ideology and Territory in Latin America"
Location and Time: Mergenthaler 366, 4:15 P.M.
Sponsors: Political Science and PLAS

Thursday, 22

Symposium:
"Global Empires, American Republics, and the Novel: A Symposium on Joseph Conrad’s Nostromo"
Participants: Juan Gabriel Vásquez (Colombian novelist); Maya Jasanoff (History, Harvard University); Peter Percival Mallios (English, History & Law, University of Maryland); and James Sanders (History, Utah State University)
Location and Time: TBD
Sponsors: PLAS, GRLL, History, Office of Study Abroad, and English

Monday, 26

Seminar:
Stephen Jacobson (History, Universitat Pompeu Fabra [Barcelona])
"The Militiaman and the Banker’s Son: An Atlantic Microhistory between Barcelona and Buenos Aires, 1845-1864"
Location and Time: Gilman 308, 4 P.M.
Sponsors: History and PLAS

November

Monday, 9

Tuesday, 10

Symposium:
Inaugural JHU Symposium on Brazil:
"Brazil in Focus: The Brazilians, Culture & Politics"
Location and Time: TBD

For more information about future events, check the Events Calendar on PLAS’s website: http://krieger.jhu.edu/plas