PUBLISH YOUR RESEARCH!

Hopkins Undergraduate Research Journal (HURJ) is currently accepting research articles to be featured in our Spring 2020 publication. Written reports of research projects in any field (i.e. humanities, social sciences, STEM) are welcomed. If you or someone you know wants to be featured in our next issue, please submit the form on this link: https://forms.gle/JYNQXKfQaSkZeUXK7. Please feel free to contact thehurj@gmail.com with any questions.

HURJ is an annual research journal that broadcasts a wide range of research projects done by Hopkins undergraduates. We are currently accepting STEM, humanities, and social sciences research articles written by undergraduates – whether it was written for credit, a project, or a grant – to be featured in the Spring 2020 publication. As said, it would be greatly appreciated if your department could send an announcement the research submission via department email, announcements by professors, or other means.

STUDYING FOR EXAMS

You’re ALMOST there........

Here are some things to think about while studying for your exams this week....

Stressbusters on campus

Helpful tips for exam week:
- sleep regularly
- eat & drink regularly
- get frequent exercise (even just walking)
- spend time outside during daylight hours
- learn and practice a relaxation technique that suits you
- rest when you rest, study when you study (switch off internet etc)
- socialize
