CLE Study Abroad Scholarship

The Center for Language Education (CLE) in the Krieger School of Arts and Sciences at Johns Hopkins University is pleased to announce the CLE Study Abroad Scholarship Program for students studying a language offered through CLE while participating in an overseas program during the fall, spring, or summer term. Scholarships of at least $1,000 will be awarded to students who demonstrate excellence in language acquisition and strong potential to further develop their language skills through study abroad. Awards will be determined through a review of applications by the CLE Director and language faculty.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- Have completed at least two terms of CLE language study (Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, Korean, or Russian)
- Be enrolled as a full-time student while abroad (graduating seniors are not eligible)
- Receive a strong faculty recommendation
- Be accepted to an approved study abroad program and cleared by the JHU Global Education Office. To check eligibility and make an appointment with a Global Education Advisor, visit <https://studyabroad.jhu.edu/>
