

EASTASIANSTUDIES

at Johns Hopkins University

Liu Dahong, Four Seasons: Autumn, 1991
(detail)

The China Talks

Thursdays 12-1:30 • Mergenthaler 366

| | | |
|-------|--|--|
| 9/30 | Mao's Great Famine: A History of China's Most Devastating Catastrophe | co-sponsored with History |
| | Frank Dikötter • Chair Professor of Humanities, University of Hong Kong and Professor, School of Oriental and African Studies, London | |
| 10/14 | Privatizing Urban Governance and the Rise of Middle-Class Activism in Postsocialist China | |
| | Li Zhang • Professor of Anthropology, University of California, Davis | |
| 10/28 | Looking without Asking: The Breakthrough of Pediatric Diagnoses in Medieval China | |
| | Chia-Feng Chang • Assistant Professor, Department of History, National Taiwan University | |
| 11/11 | Women Playing Men: Yue Opera and Social Change in Twentieth-Century Shanghai | co-sponsored with History & WGS |
| | Jin Jiang • Professor of History, Director of the Center for Gender and Cultural Studies, East China Normal University, Shanghai | |
| 12/2 | Patterns of Inscription: On the Historical Transmission of Chinese Pictures | co-sponsored with History of Art |
| | De-nin Lee • Assistant Professor, Department of Art, Bowdoin College | |