

Application for Nonresident Status for Whiting School of Engineering Graduate Students

Student's Hopkins ID #: _____ Department: _____

Name: _____ Degree: _____
(Last) (First)

JHU E-mail address: _____ Advisor: _____

Section 1: To be completed by the Graduate Student:

There are three categories of Nonresident Status for WSE Graduate students. Please read all eligibility requirements carefully before selecting the appropriate requested status. (Select only one of the three selections below):

Nonresident PhD/Masters: Dissertation/Essay/Project/Thesis Completion

- (1) To qualify for this status:
 - There can be no outstanding coursework and any exams (such as departmental qualifying exams and non-final Graduate Board Oral exams (where applicable)) must have been completed.
 - The graduate student must be very close to their dissertation defense or essay/project/thesis completion and needs to leave campus to start employment elsewhere. They will be finishing up their writing while away.
 - There must be a scheduled defense for PhD applicants. Please enter the date of defense here: _____.
- (2) Please note that this status is only for one semester, two semesters may be allowed only by special extension approval.
- (3) In this status, the student is responsible for the NR tuition and health insurance costs and receives no stipend.
- (4) In this status, the student cannot be employed on campus.

Nonresident PhD/Masters: Study Away

- (1) To qualify for this status:
 - There can be no outstanding coursework and any exams (such as departmental qualifying exams and non-final Graduate Board Oral exams (where applicable)) must have been completed.
 - The Graduate Student (with or without their advisor) has the opportunity to be actively engaged in PhD/Masters work but at a non-JHU facility.
- (2) In this status, the student remains fully supported by PI/department/host facility (NR tuition, stipend and health insurance premium payment are provided for the student) if they are already being supported at the time of the NR application.

Nonresident PhD/Masters: Internship/Co-Op

- (1) To qualify for this status:
 - There can be no outstanding coursework and any exams (such as departmental qualifying exams and non-final Graduate Board Oral exams (where applicable)) must have been completed.
 - The Graduate Student voluntarily is asking to take time to pursue opportunities that may only be tangentially relevant to their degree. The expectation is that they will return to campus in a residential capacity to complete their degree.
- (2) Please note that this status is only for one academic year, two years may be allowed only by extension approval.
- (3) In this status, the student is responsible for the NR tuition and health insurance costs and receives no stipend.
