COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY THIS WEEK!

Columbia University is looking for students who may be interested in joining their Quantitative Methods in Social Sciences MA Program. QMSS is such a unique MA program because it offers not only rigorous interdisciplinary academic training but also provides flexibility for students to pursue research across a broad range of topics such as economics, public health, psychology and others.

They are hosting two online Prospective Student Open House event on the follow days/times to discuss the program and the 2022-23 application process:

- Monday, November 8th at 10:00 a.m. ET
- Tuesday, November 9th at 8:00 p.m. ET

NSURP 2022

Every summer, the Nemours Biomedical Research Department provides funding for undergraduate students to work on clinical, laboratory and translational research projects. The Nemours Summer Undergraduate Research Program (NSURP) is a 10-week, full-time program that runs from June through early August with locations in Wilmington, DE, Jacksonville, FL and Orlando, FL. Program dates are from May 31 through August 5, 2022.

Online applications are now being accepted through December 1, 2021. Please note: All letter of reference must be received by 11:59 p.m. EST of January 31, 2022, for consideration by the selection committee.

TRUMAN SCHOLARSHIP INFO SESSION

TODAY-11/8

The Truman Scholarship recognizes exceptional readiness for a career in government or public service. Truman Scholars receive up to $30,000 for graduate studies, participate in leadership development programs, and have special opportunities for internships and employment with the federal government.

The Johns Hopkins National Fellowships Program will hold an information session on this prestigious award. Eligibility is limited to juniors, but first years and sophomores are also encouraged to attend. The pre-application deadline for this scholarship is Monday, November 15, 2021. For additional information about the Truman Scholarship, visit the website or contact the National Fellowships Program at nfp@jhu.edu.
ACADEMIC SUPPORT

The Office of Academic Support offers programs to improve study skills, provide subject-specific tutoring, and encourage peer to peer collaborative learning. These resources are available to all undergraduate students throughout the academic year free of charge.

Please click on this link for information on the PILOT Program, the Study Consultants Program and the Learning Den.

The Learning Den is offering drop-in tutoring for a number of courses, as well as HELP rooms for Economics and Neuroscience via Zoom. NEURO HELP Room – Sarah A. – Wednesday’s 6pm-8pm (EST).

LIFE DESIGN

KAREN MARDOC, LIFE DESIGN EDUCATOR

The Life Design Lab at Homewood supports and serves all Krieger and Whiting undergraduates and masters students, regardless of post-graduate plans. Life design educators are embedded within academic departments and centers across the Whiting School of Engineering and Krieger School of Arts and Sciences, which allows students to more easily access life design programs and courses, experiential learning, and connections with alumni and employers.

I will be staffing KSAS office hours from 3pm – 5pm on Tuesdays. You can find me in this Zoom space at that time. If that time does not work for you, email me at kmardoc1@jhu.edu to arrange a meeting.

CONFERENCE ROOM

The Neuroscience and Behavioral Biology Conference Room will be re-opened during the Fall 2021 semester.

The availability of the Conference Room for the week can be found HERE. We will also be posting a sign on the door when the room is in use. Due to the ongoing COVID situation, social distancing is the rule for use of the conference room.

Note: Please be sure to leave the conference room in better shape then you found it.
Visit Neuroscience website for more information.
