

Hello Students!

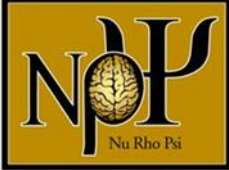

LAST WEEK OF CLASS!! The last two years have indeed been strange but we are still holding on and going strong. To our graduating juniors and seniors, welcome to your last week as an undergraduate student! It will be great to have an in-person Commencement Ceremony to celebrate all your achievements. We look forward to seeing what your future brings!

The Neuroscience and Behavioral Biology Programs Commencement Reception will be held on May 20th before the actual Commencement Ceremony. Please see below for more information, including registration.

The Nu Rho Psi student group is sponsoring an Ice Cream social for Neuroscience and Behavioral Biology students. Please see below for more information and don't forget to RSVP for the social!!
