KSAS Office of Undergraduate Research (URSCA)

FUND YOUR RESEARCH!

Humanities! Sciences! Social Sciences!

URSCA awards thousands of $$$ of funds every year to support students in ALL disciplines to engage in research, scholarly, and creative projects.

ANY DISCIPLINE

- Woodrow Wilson Fellowship: $10,000 awarded to KSAS freshmen for multi-year project
- Dean's ASPIRE: $5,000 for one year independent research project
- Bander Family Fund: $4,000 for summer project that can only happen outside the classroom

DISCIPLINE-SPECIFIC

- Alstein Research Scholarship: $5,000 awarded to undergraduate and graduate students for research in brain science (Alzheimer's)
- John Camp and Mindy Farber: $4,000 to support undergraduates conducting research in brain science (brain cancers)
- Louis E. Goodman: $1,000 to facilitate personal enrichment (arts and humanities)

INTERNATIONAL

- Constance A. Morella: $5,000-$10,000 to support one or more students to engage in independent international research
- Ho Family Summer Study Abroad: $5,000 to support immersive educational experiences in East Asia

APPS DUE FEB. 25
krieger.jhu.edu/ursca
ursca@jhu.edu